Reverend John Schaffer is the Executive Director at the Capital Area Pregnancy Center/Life Choices Clinic in Camp Hill, PA. He was raised in York, PA and is the youngest of four children. Rev. Schaffer and his wife, Jennifer, just celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary in March and have two children, Joshua (Married to Nicole) and Jonathan. They have two grandchildren, Elisha and Isaiah. Rev. Schaffer earned a Master of Science in Christian Counseling from the Philadelphia College of the Bible and continued his education to receive a Certificate of Biblical Counseling at the Christian Counseling Education Foundation. Rev. Schaffer was ordained at Bible Baptist Church in Shiremanstown, PA. He spent time using his talents in careers as a high school teacher, pastor, family counselor, and for the last 17 years-the director of the Capital Area Pregnancy Center. Some areas of personal interest and affinity include soccer and basketball where he was not only a coach for youth, but also a referee for semi-pro teams. Rev. Schaffer is also a history buff, particularly World War 2. When not fulfilling his responsibilities at the Capital Area Pregnancy Center, John will often guest speak or lecture at churches, school assemblies and other organizations.
