Doggy Bag: Something to take home and chew on!

1. In your own spiritual journey so far, what people and invitations have had the greatest impact?
2. How does seeing yourself as “sent to the places Jesus intends to go” change how you see your current situation, job, neighborhood, and etc?
3. Is your faith relatively safe and comfortable? When was the last time your faith had any adventure in it?
4. If someone were to ask you about your story and why you follow Jesus, what would you say?
5. “Sharing Jesus includes both action and speech.” Do you agree? Which direction do you tend to lean more? Why do you think both are important?
6. What is one small step of you might take in turning your faith outward? Don't go alone! Who can you ask to journey with you?

Grow On Week 3-“Postcards” Pastor Kris Beckert

What comes to mind when you think of evangelism?

Luke 10:1-2. After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. ²He told them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.

I. Jesus sends not postcards but _____

1. To where he _____

2. Because there's _____

II. As you are sent:

1. See faith as an _____

Luke 10:3 Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.

2. You have everything you _____

Luke 10:4 Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road.

3. Share _____

Luke 10:5-7. "When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace to this house.' 6 If someone who promotes peace is there, your peace will rest on them; if not, it will return to you. 7 Stay there, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house.

4. Use both actions and _____

Luke 10:8-9 "When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is offered to you. 9 Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'

5. If you're rejected, _____

Luke 10:10-12 But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say, 11 'Even the dust of your town we wipe from our feet as a warning to you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God has come near.' 12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

III. Three things to remember while being sent:

1. It's about engaging invitation, not _____

2. It's always _____

3. Where there's no risk, there's no _____

Big Idea: _____
