

Meet Ema. She is over the moon excited about obtaining her certified nursing assistant certificate. We even have a special video our YouTube channel where she was able to thank everyone who supported her. You can hear the joy exuding from her and just how thankful she is for the support she received from New Hope Ministries - all made possible from our amazing supporters. Ema worked hard and made her way through all the preclinical and clinical classes and she is now certified and ready to embark on her career.
