Doggy Bag- Some questions to chew on:

1. In your own words, why should followers of Jesus be different? How do you know if someone is trying to be "different for different's sake" or truly different?
2. How does seeing yourself as "chosen for God's purposes" affect your view of yourself and the world around you? Why is it also important to remember you are a "sojourner" too?
3. What are some ways that you have felt like an outsider because of your faith?
4. How does remembering you are a recipient of God's grace and generosity affect how you treat others and what you do with your resources?
5. Being honest, would you say your faith is genuine, inherited, shallow, or conditional? What has helped strengthen it?
6. Think back to some of the suffering or trials you've faced. How did you react toward your circumstances and why? How should this truth about your identity in Christ shape the way you respond to suffering and hostility in the future?

If you'd like to talk personally and confidentially w/ Pastor Kris about your relationship with Christ, please email pastorkris@tablelifechurch.org or call 717-774-6444 to set up an appointment.

Who are you? Is Christ part of your identity- and are you different because of it?

I. The Identity of 1 Peter:

1 Peter 1:1-2 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To God's elect, exiles scattered throughout the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, ² who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to be obedient to Jesus Christ and sprinkled with his blood: Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

⁸ Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you
