Doggy Bag-

Some questions to chew on:

1. What impacted you most from this message? Was there anything new, challenging, or surprising?
2. How does a vision of heaven that is not an escape from earth but rather a redeemed earth impact you? How does a vision of the "new creation" align with the rest of the story of God in the Bible?
3. What stands out to you most about what is not in heaven? How does that encourage you in the present?
4. What stands out to you most in how Revelation answers the four questions in the sermon? Do you agree?
5. According to Revelation, why is it important that heaven consist of people who desire to be under the authority of Jesus? Why is it also important that we leave the judgment of that to God?

The Time is Near "All Things New " Pastor Kris Beckert

Visualization of the _____ helps living in the _____.

Revelation 21:1-5 Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth," for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. ² I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. ⁴ 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." ⁵ He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

Revelation 21:22-27 I did not see a temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. ²³ The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp. ²⁴ The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their splendor into it. ²⁵ On no day will its gates ever be shut, for there will be no night there. ²⁶ The glory and honor of the nations will be brought into it. ²⁷ Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

#3. _____ are we going to do there?
