Doggy Bag-

Some questions to chew on:

1. What stood out to you most from this message?
2. Does your faith cause you to act or be different than many other people your age, position, or life stage? How does your faith impact how you treat people, especially those who are different than you?
3. What need do you see that you could meet?
4. What would it look like to offer others grace or mercy not only when they ask for it or seem to deserve it?
5. What cost are you fearful of having to pay by stepping out to help someone or do what is right?
6. What have you been talking yourself out of that God might want you to do? What excuses have you been making?
7. How would you answer the question "who is my neighbor?" Why?
8. Why must our love for God be lived out in a horizontal relationship with other people, especially people who are different than us?

Tough Love "Part V. Different " Pastor Kris Beckert

If you're a Christian, what makes you "different?"

Two Key Elements of Being Different:

1. Different in how we see _____
2. Different in how we treat _____

Who is my _____ and how am I to treat him/her?

I. A _____ for Jesus

Luke 10:25-27 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" ²⁶ "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" ²⁷ He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

• The expert's response to Jesus:

- ◇ Part I -- Deuteronomy 6:5 --
- ◇ Part II -- Leviticus 19:18 --

II. A _____ for Jesus

Luke 10:28-29 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live." ²⁹ But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

- The expert was really asking _____

III. A _____ from Jesus

Luke 10: 30-35 In reply Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. ³¹ A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. ³² So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³ But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. ³⁴ He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵ The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.' "

- The priest and Levite responded by _____

- The Samaritan responded by _____

IV. A _____ from Jesus

Luke 10:36-37 "Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?" ³⁷ The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him." Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

- Jesus widens the definition of a _____

Who loves their neighbor?

1. The one who sees _____
2. The one who gives _____
3. The one who knows _____
4. The one who doesn't talk _____
