It includes three photos: a large group of people in red shirts standing in front of a church building, a group of people sitting at tables outdoors, and a group of people sitting at tables indoors. The text "PENTECOST" is in large, bold, red letters, followed by "WORSHIP & PICNIC" in bold, blue letters. Below this, a dark blue banner contains the text "Sunday, June 8" and "10:30 am" in white. At the bottom, it says "Wear red & bring a side to share! Hot dogs, hamburgers, drinks & desserts are provided" in bold, black letters.

Doggy Bag-

Some questions to chew on:

1. What stood out to you most from this message? What was an a-ha moment?
2. Why are guardrails/boundaries important in relationships? Why do Christians often falsely believe that to love someone means giving ourselves away at any cost? How is that a distortion of what Jesus teaches?
3. Of your regrets or broken relationships, which would have benefitted or perhaps ended differently had you established guardrails/boundaries?
4. Have you ever ignored a guardrail that God had given? Why? What happened as a result? What did you learn?
5. Of the four relational guardrails demonstrated by Jesus, which is most difficult for you? Which is currently needed in your life to protect and direct you in a relationship?
6. How do guardrails actually help us to remain in relationship with difficult people?
7. Do you have a relationship that could benefit from guardrails? What can you do to begin to establish guardrails? What obstacles will you have to overcome?
