Some questions to chew on:

1. Has there ever been a time in your life you felt God calling you to do something but you were doubtful or unprepared? What happened?
2. What stands out to you about Hannah in this part of the story? What do you see about her that makes her unique or admirable and why?
3. Why must we embrace hard things in life as part of our journey of faith? How can hard things actually point us in the direction of Christ?
4. How does God use hard seasons? Name an example from your life.
5. What are some ways a calling may cost us? What are some ways that God sustains us? How has your calling cost you? How has God sustained you?
6. In Hannah's song, what is she celebrating? Why do you think she does this as she brings Samuel to the tabernacle?
7. Do you choose to do hard things or stick to what's comfortable and easy? What "hard thing" have you been avoiding that could actually be a calling from God?

Calling Part II. Not Easy Pastor Kris Beckett

Ephesians 4:1 As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received.

I. Four Aspects of God's Call to Remember:

1. God has a _____ call on every believer's life
2. God has a _____ call on your life
3. When you live faithfully in God's call, your life has an _____
4. As a follower of Jesus, you will always feel incomplete until you _____

God never issues a divine _____ without providing divine _____

II. Three things to recognize when God is calling you to do a hard thing:

1. Callings are _____

1 Samuel 1:19-20 Early the next morning they arose and worshiped before the Lord and then went back to their home at Ramah. Elkanah made love to his wife Hannah, and the Lord remembered her. ²⁰ So in the course of time Hannah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, saying, "Because I asked the Lord for him."

- The name Samuel means "God _____"

2. Callings have _____

1 Samuel 1:21-28 When her husband Elkanah went up with all his family to offer the annual sacrifice to the Lord and to fulfill his vow, ²² Hannah did not go. She said to her husband, "After the boy is weaned, I will take him and present him before the Lord, and he will live there always." ²³ "Do what seems best to you," her husband Elkanah told her. "Stay here until you have weaned him; only may the Lord make good his word." So the woman stayed at home and nursed her son until she had weaned him. ²⁴ After he was weaned, she took the boy with her, young as he was, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the Lord at Shiloh. ²⁵ When the bull had been sacrificed, they brought the boy to Eli, ²⁶ and she said to him, "Pardon me, my lord. As surely as you live, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to the Lord. ²⁷ I prayed for this child, and the Lord has granted me what I asked of him. ²⁸ So now I give him to the Lord. For his whole life he will be given over to the Lord." And he worshiped the Lord there.

3. Callings are _____

1 Samuel 2:1-10 Then Hannah prayed and said: "My heart rejoices in the Lord; in the Lord my horn is lifted high. My mouth boasts over my enemies, for I delight in your deliverance. ² "There is no one holy like the Lord; there is no one besides you; there is no Rock like our God. ³ "Do not keep talking so proudly or let your mouth speak such arrogance, for the Lord is a God who knows, and by him deeds are weighed. ⁴ "The bows of the warriors are broken, but those who stumbled are armed with strength. ⁵ Those who were full hire themselves out for food, but those who were hungry are hungry no more. She who was barren has borne seven children, but she who has had many sons pines away. ⁶ "The Lord brings death and makes alive; he brings down to the grave and raises up. ⁷ The Lord sends poverty and wealth; he humbles and he exalts. ⁸ He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap; he seats them with princes and has them inherit a throne of honor. "For the foundations of the earth are the Lord's; on them he has set the world. ⁹ He will guard the feet of his faithful servants, but the wicked will be silenced in the place of darkness. "It is not by strength that one prevails; ¹⁰ those who oppose the Lord will be broken. The Most High will thunder from heaven; the Lord will judge the ends of the earth. He will give strength to his king and exalt the horn of his anointed."
