A poster for Pentecost Worship & Picnic. It features a red and white checkered border. On the left, there are two polaroid-style photos: one of a large group of people in red shirts gathered on a lawn in front of a church building, and another of a baptism taking place in a blue pool. The text "PENTECOST WORSHIP & PICNIC" is written in large, bold, red and blue letters. Below this, a dark blue banner contains the date and time: "Sunday, May 24 10:30 am". At the bottom, a paragraph of text describes the event: "Join us for worship, baptisms, and an all-church picnic! Wear red & bring a side or dessert to share. Hot dogs, hamburgers, & drinks are provided".

Some questions to chew on:

1. In the past, how have you understood heaven? Who or what impacted this picture? How is it different from the picture that Scripture paints?
2. What stands out to you about how the Jews originally understood the afterlife? What do you think was so hopeful about what God said through Daniel and the other prophets?
3. What difference does it make to know that Jesus said the Kingdom of Heaven is near/has begun? How does that impact how you see your life right now?
4. From the Scriptures and sermon, in your own words how would you describe Heaven on Earth when Jesus comes back? What is new to you about this? What brings you hope or is most exciting?
5. What has God promised about our bodies? About creation? About justice? About pain and suffering?
6. Knowing that we may not have all the answers or details, what do you wonder about Heaven?
7. How does it impact you to know life, not death, is our final ending? How do we participate in the Kingdom of Heaven right now?
8. Who in your life needs to hear something from this message?

Life After Death Part V. Heaven on Earth Pastor Kris Beckert

I. How should we understand a Christian view of Heaven?

1. The Early Jews did not have a full concept of _____

- They talked a lot about _____, which means “the pit or the grave,” a shadowy sense of existence

Psalm 18:5 ...the cords of Sheol entangled me; the snares of death confronted me.

- They tried to believe that _____ people receive blessings in this life and bad people receive disease and other bad things, but this wasn't always true (Book of Job)
- In the 6th century BC, God sent prophets to talk about a time in the next life when God would work all things out

Daniel 12:1b-3 But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered. ² Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt. ³ Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

2. The Later Jews came to understand heaven as a time when God will _____ and _____ creation

- This is what _____ taught and the Pharisees believed
- This included resurrection of the body and the world created new and perfect under God's rule

3. Jesus taught about Heaven as _____ fully established on earth

Matthew 4:17 From that time on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."

- Jesus indicates that what is going to happen one day has already started
- But it is also not _____

Matthew 25:31-33 When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. ³² All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³ He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

II. What will Heaven on Earth be like?

Revelation 21:1-5 Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth," for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. ² I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. ⁴ 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." ⁵ He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

1. A real _____ place
2. We will have a _____ physical body

1 Corinthians 15:42-44 So will it be with the resurrection of the dead. The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable; ⁴³ it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; ⁴⁴ it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body.

1 Corinthians 15:38-39 But God gives it a body as he has determined, and to each kind of seed he gives its own body. ³⁹ Not all flesh is the same: People have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another and fish another.

3. A place of _____

4. A place of _____

Romans 8:18-21 I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. ¹⁹ For the creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God.

5. Where we are _____

Isaiah 64: 4 Since ancient times no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who acts on behalf of those who wait for him.
